One Killed, Two Injured U. S. 90 Auto Wreck

condition of Orin Hankins, critically injured in a two-car-truck collision on U. S. 90 Friday in which the Field Airman was killed, remains the same after Veterans Administration officials said today. His wife, who was hospitalized in Gulfport Hospital, is reported in good condition.

The accident, which was Hankins' 12th fatal, occurred at 4:30 p.m. Friday nine miles west of Bay St. Louis on a rain-slick U. S. 90. Airman Morris Belin, 20, of Bronx, N. Y., died from multiple internal injuries at the Keesler AFB hospital about five hours after the accident. He was given emergency treatment at the Hancock County Hospital.

Hankins was admitted to the VA Hospital for observation and treatment of a fractured rib, fractured left hip, body bruises and facial lacerations. He is still under an oxygen tent, according to today's report.

Mrs. Hankins is being treated at the Gulfport hospital for a dislocated neck, fractured ribs, fractured left hip, deep lacerations of the face, tongue and knees, loss of teeth and partial amputation of several fingers.

Belin was traveling west on U. S. 90 during a steady rain when he attempted to pass a liquid gas transport truck, according to William P. Kenny, state highway patrolman who investigated. A pickup truck operated by Hankins and an automobile driven by Orlo V. Ladner of Lakeshore were approaching in the east-bound lane, according to Kenny.

Kenny said Belin apparently realized he would be unable to pass the transport truck in time and slammed on his brakes, sliding sideways into the right side of the oncoming Hankins pickup truck. Belin careened on and struck the Ladner auto. Ladner escaped injury.

New Bus Body Purchased by School Board

Plans for the purchase of a new bus for the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District neared completion Tuesday night at a special meeting of the trustees.

Meeting with Superintendent Joe D. McCullough, the board examined three bids that had been approved by the state for a bus body, Maurice J. Artigues moved that the bid of the Superior Sales Company of Jackson for $2,710.35 be accepted. The motion was seconded by Robert Hamilton and carried unanimously.

It was pointed out that while the bid of the Superior company was the highest, being $284 more than the lowest, the body had many accessories and features not included in the others. It is a commuter type bus, seating 48 people and meets the current needs of the school system more fully. It will be used principally by the athletic department.

Purchase of the chassis will be probably discussed at the next regular meeting. Funds for the bus will be provided by the state, McCullough stated.

Attorney Sam L. Favre Jr. explained that the local board of trustees are not required to advertise for bids but they merely accept one of three submitted by the State Education and Finance Commission.

The board also approved payment of a statement of Kyriandall and Proffer, architects, for $9,489.69, which represents 4 1/2 per cent of the $210,882 construction program.

Miss America to Bypass County

Mississippi's Miss America, Lynda Mead of Natchez, will not be able to visit Bay St. Louis and Waveland when she is on the coast Dec. 17-18, according to Mayors John Scalfide and Garfield Ladner.

Mary Ann Mobley, Miss America of 1959, visited the two towns last year during October.

Bi-County Livestock Show, Fair Proposals Are Eyed

Groundwork for a bi-county livestock show and fair for Pearl River and Hancock counties to be held in Picaune in 1960 will begin October 30 when representatives from both counties will meet in Picaune, according to Hancock County Agent Howard Simmons.

The boards of supervisors from both counties and other interested parties agreed to investigate the project when they lunched at the 1959 Pearl River show Oct. 8.

County Agent J. M. Sinclair of Pearl River and Simmons along two representatives from each county will survey the facilities just off U. S. 11 south of the Picaune city limits and determine the funds required to update and improve the property. Committee members from Hancock county are Hardin Shattuck of Bay St. Louis and James Reaser of Leetown while Nello G. Page and Louis D. Megehee, both of Picaune, represent Pearl River county.

Present facilities are estimated at $30,000, according to Simmons, but expansion for a bi-county show would include additional exhibit space, parking facilities and livestock pens.

Simmons said that the survey will be presented to the two county boards of supervisors after Jan. 1 when new members of the boards take office.

Supervisors Approve New Health Center

Hancock County supervisors gave final approval to the Dunbar Avenue proposed site for the new $24,000 county health center at their meeting Tuesday.

Architect Fred Wagner of New Orleans, who designed the proposed structure, was advised to complete the final drawings on the basis of the Dunbar site and present them to the board Nov. 2 for a final inspection. The center will be built on county-owned land between the new hospital and the County Home, using the access road to Dunbar Avenue.

Dr. J. T. Maddux and Sanitation Supervisor Wayne Alliston advised against the possibility of using the building now occupied by the Hancock County Hospital for the health center. Maddux explained that there was little similarity between the work of the center and the hospital and an extensive remodeling program would be needed if the hospital building was used.

He added that the building was in a general state of disrepair and general operating expense would be extremely high.

Beat 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard Jr. commented that the present board was obliged, according to the agreement signed when the county purchased the hospital from the King's Daughters organization, to use the proceeds from the sale of the building for the new hospital.

On the advice of Board Attorney Sam Favre Jr., the supervisors decided to withhold further payments to Hospital Contractors Perrillat and Rickey and Architect Wilfred Dawson until a change order advised by the hospital commission could be completed.

Favre explained that the board had been meeting payments out of local funds which were now depleted and could not obtain available funds.

The Bay Central P-TA Halloween Carnival will take place in the S. J. Ingram Elementary School followed by a dance at the Youth Center. Mrs. Johnny Miller is chairman of the carnival and

SSC Infirmary Dedication Set For Saturday

Dedication ceremonies of the new $200,000 infirmary building will be conducted Saturday on St. Stanislaus campus. The Most Reverend Richard O. Gerow, Bishop of Natchez-Jackson Diocese, will preside.

Mass will be celebrated in Our Lady of the Gulf Church at 10 a.m. by the Reverend Bishop after which the building will be blessed.

The infirmary is a concrete and a aluminum structure with exterior mosaic panels in pastel colors. The first floor houses three classrooms, an office for the Rock-A-Chaw newspaper staff, one for the yearbook staff and a photographic laboratory. The infirmary proper is located on the second floor and includes treatment, x-ray, sick rooms and nurses quarters. The third floor is an annex to the faculty residence.

Brother Roland, now principal of Cor Jesu High School at New Orleans was largely responsible for its construction and contributions from the alumni made the infirmary possible.

Schedule Change For L & N Train

The Gulf Wind-Piedmont Limited, No. 34, will leave Bay St. Louis at 7:12 p.m. for Jacksonville and Atlanta effective October 25, according to a Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. announcement.

Earlier the railroad company had given the new departure time as 7:22 p.m. Changes in departure schedules for the other four trains remain as previously scheduled.

No. 6 will depart at 10:29 a. m.; No. 5 at 1:59 p.m. No. 37 will arrive at 6:01 p.m. and No. 33 at 6:40 a.m. All changes are to be effective on October 25.

Give Parish School Job

Contract for building the proposed Our Lady of the Gulf parish school was awarded to Bric Building Co. of Birmingham, Ala. subject to the approval of Bishop Richard Gerow, S.T.D., at a closed meeting yesterday, it was reliably learned.

Bric Building Co. also was awarded the job on a three-project construction program by the city school board last month.

Bids on the parochial school had been taken under advisement when prices were found to be well over the estimated cost. New bids were read at yesterday's session after the plans for the school had been reworded to cut building expenses.

Three classrooms were eliminated from the plans, making the school a 13-classroom structure. Changes were also made in chalk boards, fixtures and heating.

Blood Drawing Slated at Kiln

Plans for a benefit movie and a blood drawing at Kiln Nov. 18 were set Tuesday night by the Hancock County Blood Bank.

All proceeds from the Nov. 11 movie at the Star Theater were offered to the Blood Bank by Joseph Scalfide, theater owner; Cyril Glover, Gordon Romanoff (Cont. on Page 6.)

Baptists Plan Special Program

Moving pictures of dedication services for the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church will be shown Sunday at 7:30 p.m. This film was made in November, 1949 when the note-burning ceremony was observed. Members of the local church and visiting denominational leaders participated in that special service under the pastorate of The Rev. John Dearing.

The present pastor, Dr. Franklin Atkinson, said he expects these pictures from the past to be of great interest to citizens of Bay St. Louis; those who constituted the church group at that time, those who have united since then, and persons who are not Baptist members but who have witnessed the growth of the local church.

COUPLE WED SATURDAY— Mr. and Mrs. George Noel are shown following their wedding which was solemnized at the Gulf Catholic Church.

Mrs. Noel is the former Celeste Chevis, daughter of Mr. John C. Chevis.

The young couple will make their home in Sayre, Okla.

Extremists Do Harm

The recent petition by four radical Negroes to the Harrison County Board of Supervisors to open to Negroes the entire stretch of beach in that county poses more than one problem.

To begin with, because of the unusual split in property rights, it may be illegal as well as improper for the board to grant the request. Private property rights, so far, do not come under the Black Monday decision of the U. S. Supreme Court. We hazard no guess as to what the Warren-led Court will do.

More important to us, it appears, is the indication that the more radical Negroes, those dominated by NAACP political aspirants, are coming to control their race in Mississippi, while the moderates are losing out. Only a few weeks ago a Negro minister, Rev. Famous McElhane of Gulfport, assured this editor that he and the group with which he is associated would ask only for a section of beach to be set aside for the use of his race. As head of the Negro ministerial association of Harrison County he and the association have formally and for publication endorsed the more extreme request for what amounts to forced social association with the white race.

With the proposition to set aside a section, or two or more sections, this paper has no disagreement. As citizens and taxpayers, including the special tax for beach maintenance, the Negro race rates some beach use.

The Echo has not sympathized with the various Citizens Council organizations, believing them too extreme, but stupid actions such as that by some of Harrison County Negroes, some of the handouts by various NAACP branches, is the best excuse for the extreme position of white Citizens' Councils.

One last aspect is that the action makes liars out of the NAACP lawyers, much of the Yankee press and political justices (a misnomer) on the Supreme Court who have insisted the Negro wants no forced social mixing. While swimming may be a sport under some circumstances, beach bathing and use is basically social.

We suspect that had the petition been made in some of the Delta counties, more than a cross-burning would have occurred, including some Negro fists messing up Negro faces.

Teachers Group Hears Johnston Tell MEA Plans

Garvin H. Johnston, president of Pearl River Junior College and of the Mississippi Education Association, addressed the Hancock County Teachers Association Monday night at North Central School.

Johnston outlined proposals which the MEA plans to submit to the state legislature concerning increased educational appropriations to provide better classroom teaching aids and teacher salary plan.

A county-wide committee was appointed by Oscar Breland, Logtown principal and association president, to determine available intelligence and achievement tests for elementary students in the county.

Mrs. G. S. Kennedy of North Central was elected secretary to replace Cherrie Green, who resigned after her marriage this fall. Breland reported that Bay High, North Central and Gulfview were 100 per cent in membership dues payment.

The bank decided to publicize the proper procedure for obtaining blood through its facilities after learning earlier in the week that a nearby hospital had charged the Hancock County organization with 96 pints of blood which had not been properly requested.

Monetary donations are still needed by the bank and should be mailed to P. O. Box 254, Bay St. Louis.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:
$500,000,000 LOSS TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR
Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.
You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.
Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman—even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.
The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.
In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Fenton Resident Recalls

Life on the Border Patrol

"My 26 years on the Border Patrol saw the complete change over from horses to airplanes. The real life story is nothing like the television program," says Robert Coleman of Fenton.

A member of the patrol from 1929 until he retired in 1955, Coleman spent the major part of his service on the Mexican border near Laredo, Texas. "Everything I learned was from experience, including a working knowledge of Spanish. Today the patrol has schools and training programs," he says. "The work was mostly routine and not hard. We never knew where we would spend the night during the long hours of patrol."

"I retired after I couldn't catch them anymore. You know, the Mexicans are part jack-rabbit and I just got so that I couldn't chase them when they would run," he laughed. A tall, weathered man, Coleman spends his time now on his farm near Kiln.

"I really didn't have any close scrapes except for this," Coleman said showing a clipping from the Laredo Times newspaper dated May 29, 1932, which tells how Pedro Holguin was the only survivor of a river front gun battle with Coleman and another border patrolman.

"Holguin later turned out to be wanted for the mass massacre of seven members of a family in New Mexico. He had escaped from a Mexican jail when we had the battle," Coleman said. "He was executed later," he added.

"We would usually slip down to a well-known crossing on the Rio Grande at night and wait for them to come over. The ones who cross illegally are known as wet-backs. One thing we learned early was to wait for the Mexican to sit down to put his clothes back on before we nabbed him. They usually wouldn't run back after they had gotten their clothes on."

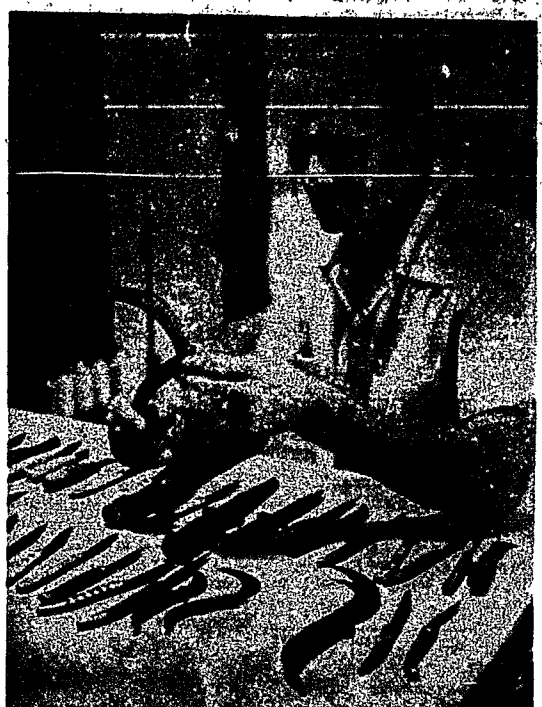

"The wet-back was locked up in jail until the next morning and then taken before a warrant officer. If there was no record, he was kicked back over. But, if there were too many arrests on the form, he was held for deportation proceedings," he said.

"We caught all ages, from very young children to old men 75 or 80 years old."

An expert pistolman, Coleman has eight personal medals and was a member of the champion border patrol team in 1938. One is a solid gold medal with the inscription, Second prize in individual pistol shooting, 1938, Monterey, Mexico.

"I don't shoot much now," he smiles, "since I have to wear glasses, either the target is blurred or the sight is blurred."

"The last 10 years I was in we had a great deal of detail work. I remember one on which

MEXICAN WEAPON—Robert Coleman examines a "gun-getter" he took from a Mexican wet-back. Coleman displays a part of his vast collection of knives and switch-blades he received while a member of the border patrol.

12 of us followed the parallel lines of the Santa Fe and Union Pacific Railroads. A spotter plane flew ahead of us and would radio back when we were coming up on an extra-gang (a group of box cars in which the railroad workers lived). We picked up all of the wet-backs in these groups in a cattle truck."

"Once they were apprehended, they usually wouldn't try to claim American citizenship," Coleman said.

Coleman's large collection of knives and switch-blades, taken from captured wet-backs, fills two cardboard boxes. "I've given most of them away except for a few unusual ones and the switch-blades which are illegal. The most dangerous one I have is this Gun-Getter."

A curved blade approximately five inches long snapped out of a carved horn sheath as he showed the knife. "Its name describes exactly what it was used for," he said.

Born in Brookhaven, Coleman considers the coast home. His daughter, Mrs. Mary Coleman Dunham and her two children, live with Coleman and his wife on the farm. His other daughters are Mrs. B. L. Piazza of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. Donald Manieri of New Orleans. A son Robert Coleman Jr., a B47 crew chief with SAC, is now on duty in Turkey. He has 12 grandchildren who affectionately call him "Pawpaw."

"My days in the border patrol were exciting and fun, but I'm ready for a rest now," Coleman says.

Jones Tops Moss Point

The Valena C. Jones Tigers defeated a rugged Moss Point eleven 7-0 Saturday in Moss Point.

Both squads exhibited an unpenetrable defense and neither could score until late in the fourth period. Moss Point took to the air and end Saunders "Thinner" Bell intercepted a pass, picked up some blocking, and scooted 42 yards for the solitary TD. Quarterback Robert Wilson's pass to right halfback Jeston Smith was good for the extra point.

The Tigers' leading ground gainer, Grenell "Bozooks" Sylvester, has been out of action for two weeks but will be in the starting lineup tonight for the homecoming game with Ocean Springs.

Reuben Ruiz' eleven, while lacking in depth, is in good shape and with good luck could win. Wayne Cleveland will be back in action in Saturday's game.

The Rock-A-Chaws were defeated by an aerial attack. They outplayed the Rebels on the ground making 12 first downs to Notre Dame's 7. Stanislaus tried 6 passes and completed 1 for a total of 7 yards while Notre Dame made 8 attempts and completed 4 for a total of 129 yards.

Fullback Rodney Mattina and quarterback Vincent Kuluz were the successful pitchers and Clement Dellenger was the receiver on the important plays.

Stanislaus solitary touchdown was the result of a 70-yard march sparked by fleet-footed halfback Ronnie Artigues who scored on a 37-yard run in the final minute of the first quarter.

The Rocks were in trouble from the opening gun. They received and eked out one first down but then were stopped on their own 27. Artigues' punt went out of bounds on the Rocks' 38.

Notre Dame took over and on their first offensive effort, Kuluz later led to Mattina who started around right end and passed to Dellenger who scored after almost being dropped on the 7. A line buck failed for the extra point.

Stanislaus received again but was unable to make a first down. Artigues punted to Notre Dame's 39 from where they paraded to their second TD of the first quarter. Good runs by Mattina, Jimmy Parker, a 15-yard penalty against the Rocks and a bullet pass from Kuluz to Dellenger accounted for the 61-yard touchdown march. The Rocks broke through and stopped the try for conversion.

Again Stanislaus received but this time they were not to be stopped and Artigues broke through for some good gains culminated by his 37-yard touchdown scamper.

Neither team was able to score in the third quarter although the Rebels had the ball on the Rock-A-Chaws' 2. Notre Dame took to the air again and scored when a pass from Kuluz to Dellenger was good for 52 yards putting the ball on the Rocks' 20. On the next play, Kuluz again passed to Dellenger who flipped to Mattina. Mattina scored the final tally, taking the short lateral from Dellenger and scampering 15 yards to pay dirt.

The Hornets scored again in the third period on a 50-yard pass from Davis to halfback Bob Forts and Davis kick was good. In the fourth quarter another pass from Davis to end Robert Young was good for 45 yards and a TD but Davis' kick was blocked by Strong.

A penalty moved the pignskin to the 10 and Davis went around end, breaking clear for a 90-yard TD run. The kick was good and Poplarville controlled most of the play for the rest of the second quarter. The half ended just as Bay High took over with the Hornets leading 14-0.

The Tigers took the kick after the intermission but were held and Watts got off a fine kick to the Hornets' 21. Glen Blaize broke through and threw Davis for a 6-yard loss. A short punt and the Tigers took the ball on Poplarville's 45. On four successive plays by Peterson it was first and 10 on the Hornets' 14 when Watts went over for the TD.

Bay High....

Most high school football squads in this area are handicapped by lack of depth and the Tigers are no exception. They started the season with four wins in a row and now have two straight losses with five of their first string eleven on the injured list including Barry Stevens, q. b. - h. b.; Tommy Godwin, q. b.; Floyd Christy, g.; James Sabella, g. and Larry Breiland, e., who will probably be out for the season. Breiland has scored two touchdowns this year and has shown promise of being one of the outstanding ends on the Coast.

"Poplarville is the toughest squad we have played this year", said Coach Lance Lumpkin. "They are undefeated and untied in seven games and with only two games against weak teams left, they should finish undefeated."

"Friday night is Homecoming and we are looking forward to a tough game with Perkinston Agricultural High School which beat Pass Christian last week 25-0. Perk has improved in every game this year and will be gunning for us but we hope to be stronger this week. It is possible that Stevens, Godwin and Sabella will be back in action. New in the line-up will be Reginald Favre at tackle and Paul Henley at half-back."

Poplarville scored in every quarter while the Tigers were able to cross the goal then only once in the third period. Big Bill Watts took the ball over from the 14 after some fine runs by Pete Peterson.

The Tigers took the opening kick but found they were up against a stubborn Hornet defense and after a penalty, Watts punted. In spite of some fine defensive work by center Jim Mayfield, the Hornets began to move and a 55-yard pass from quarterback Billy Davis to end Robert Young was good for a TD. Davis' kick was good.

LaFrance took the ensuing kick and put the ball on his own 32. A pass from Watts to LaFrance was good but the Tigers were stopped on the Hornets' 25. Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

Anybody willing to brave the elements caught fish last week. Intermittent downpours and wind kept many anglers on the beach but those who packed their umbrellas and slickers did all right. Both salt and fresh water species are biting on either artificial, live or dead bait.

Most hunters are biding their time, preferring cooler weather. Some shooting has been reported but few squirrels have been seen. Veteran rodent-stalkers are waiting until after Thanksgiving when mosquitoes will be scarce and squirrels plentiful. Trees will be bare and will offer less cover for the bushy-tails. The season closes December 31.

With three shiners for bait, Frank Embrey caught three specks, two weighing in at three pounds each, off the American Legion pier. We understand he was preparing to go out the next day in the rain wearing a slicker but was dissuaded by Mrs. Embrey.

Joe Kern is still talking about the nine-pound green trout he caught in Florida. He is having it stuffed and mounted but the evidence won't be ready for a couple of months.

E. S. Drake, one of the county's most seasoned and skilled fishermen, says bull croaker time is here. He caught some whoppers in the Ansley vicinity.

Those members of the Gun and Rod Club who skipped the meeting at the Broadview Restaurant really missed something. The food was out of this world and the movies interesting as was Lamar Switzer's speech. General conversation before and after the meeting was strictly sports and among the 57 members present one could easily find someone with common interests.

We were surprised at Alden Mauffray's knowledge of salmon. did you know that both male and female salmon die within 48 hours after spawning?

Several non-members have told us they would like to join but couldn't afford banquets and we want to advise sportsmen that there is no extra charge for the dinners and dues are nominal.

Fred Bourgeois caught 21 trout off the seawall near Jackson House early Monday using live shrimp. He was up at daylight Tuesday but there was too much wind, he says.

Jack Ladner is anxiously awaiting the duck season, according to the grapevine on the beach. Oldtimers watching the flocks of wild geese flying south Monday night and Tuesday morning report that cold or bad weather won't be far behind them.
